Policeman Joseph Horn of Special squad No. 1, detailed in Brooklyn, was indicted for bribery to-day by the additional Grand Jury for July. which was continued over by Judge Mulqueen to hear further evidence in the vice investigation now being conducted by District Attorney Swann through Assistant District Attorney Swann through Assistant District Attorney James, E. Smith.

It was alleged by witnesses before the Grand Jury that on Aug. 10 last year Horn came over to Manhattun and took $15 supposed protection money from a woman who ran an alleged disorderly house on East Seventeenth Street near Third Avenue.

Horn is the sixth policeman indicated in this investigation. Ten indictions in all have been handed dictments in all have been handed down. Other charges are being in-vestigated by Mr. Smith for pres-entation to the Grand Jury next week.

"The evidence does not show widespread graft," said District Attorney Swann, in commenting on the indictment. "Corruption of this sort appears to be sporadic only."

The graft investigation will proceed all summer.

FINAL EFFORT TO SECURE GARMENT TRADE PEACE

Department of Labor Committee Meets Representatives of Employers and Workers Here.

Simultaneously with the arrival today of Ethelbert Stewart, John Momit and Charles W. Mill, the committee appointed by the Department of Labor to mediate the differences of the garment workers and their employers in ment workers and their employers in this city, the opposing elements went again into session at the Hotel McAlpin to see if they couldn't come to peace. It was said that both sides feared the investigation which would follow the arrival of the official mediators and were eager to settle the differences themselves.

No referendum as to peace or war has been possible among the workers, it was said, on account of their temperamental character. As matters now stand, the employers have agreed to practically everything the workers demanded, but the latter have repudiated the whole thing. So the em-
